FAIRBANKS COQUETTING REPUBLICANS DECIDE TO STAND PAT ON TARIFF AND BURY TRUST QUESTION!

TARIFF LEADS, TRUST QUESTION BURIED, IN THE REPUBLICAN PLATFORM, FORECAST BY SHAW

CHICAGO, June 20.—Secretary of the Treasury Shaw today gave a forecast of the Republican platform, as it will be adopted by the convention. He said:

"IN MY JUDGMENT THE TARIFF WILL COME FIRST. THE DECLARATION ON THAT SUBJECT WILL PRACTICALLY FOLLOW THE ONE OF FOUR YEARS AGO. WE WILL 'STAND PAT.' THERE HAS BEEN NO CHANGE IN CONDITIONS, AND THE UTTERANCES OF THE PARTY WILL BE REITERATED. The Iowa idea has been shelved by Iowa itself, and although there will be no declaration to the effect that there will be no revision of the tariff schedule, neither will there be any promise of revision in the near future or later.

"Of course, the platform will consider the trust question. The administration policy will be approved, but there will be no declarations calling on Congress for riotous action. There will probably be a demand that the tariff be removed from articles in which there is no competition in trade, but I don't think it will go farther than that.

"There will be a Philippine plank promising some sort of autonomy to the Philippines, but conditions will be attached which will demand high standards of civilization from the little brown men before this step is taken.

"The financial planks of past platforms will be approved."

AWFUL SLAUGHTER AT BATTLE OF TELISSU

Japs Buried 1,500 Russians, Chinese Burned Many, and Burials Not Yet Finished—Skrydloff Reported in Port Arthur Harbor.

TOKIO, June 20.—General Oku reports that after the battle at Telissu last week the Japanese buried 1,516 Russians who were found dead on the battlefield. The burials, he says, are not yet finished.

Natives, according to the report, stole the Russians buried, burned or carried of many other dead.

The Russian casualties are appalling.

NATIONAL LEAGUE PA. B. June 20.—Barnes day at the grounds attracted a large crowd this afternoon. It was the first time this season that the fans had a chance to see two games for one admission, and they came to the park in droves.

At 3:30 o'clock the first router arrived at the park. The hour for starting the game was rather early to get the fans out, and they didn't really begin to pour into the National grounds until the game was well under way.

All were a happy smile, as they thought

CHICAGO, June 20.—"STAND PAT." THIS, IN EFFECT, WILL BE THE PLATFORM ADOPTED BY THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION, AT CHICAGO. SECRETARY SHAW, AFTER SEEING THE DRAFT OF THE PLATFORM, BROUGHT TO CHICAGO IN THE CAPACIOUS POCKET OF SENATOR LODGE, OF MASSACHUSETTS, IS AUTHORITY FOR THE STATEMENT THAT SENATOR HANNA'S PHRASE JUST FITS IT.

"THE TARIFF WILL COME FIRST IN THE CAMPAIGN, AND IT WILL BE A CASE OF 'STAND PAT,'" SAID SECRETARY SHAW.

"The declaration on that subject in the platform follows the one of four years ago," he continued. "There has been no changes in the conditions and the party utterance of the last convention will be reiterated."

The men to whose final judgment the draft of the platform is submitted are Secretary Shaw, former Secretary Root, Senator Allison, of Iowa; Senator Foraker, of Ohio; Cornelius N. Bliss, of New York and former Postmaster-General Charles Emory Smith, of Philadelphia.

SENATOR FAIRBANKS TALKS.

Senator Fairbanks practically committed himself today to acceptance of the nomination for Vice-President. In response to pressure and the representation that he was seriously embarrassing his friends and ought to declare himself, he announced that he would bow to the wishes of his senatorial colleagues.

It took half an hour of earnest persuasion on the part of Senators Platt, Alger, of Michigan; Penrose, Dryden, Spooner, Vice-Chair-

MEAT TRUST TURNS PRICE SCREW AGAIN

FANCY BEEF CUTS RAISED THREE CENTS—CHEAPER GRADES ALSO UP.

The Meat Trust has given the price handlers one more vicious turn and those handlers are selling the best camp steak for thirty-three cents per pound, which is three cents over the price of Saturday. Loin steak which was selling from twenty to twenty-five cents last week was raised this morning twenty-five to twenty-eight cents and tongue, which was sixteen, is now eighteen cents per pound.

Many poor families have told grocers that they could not afford to buy at the present prices, for even the cheap grades of beef have gone up, although they have not advanced as rapidly as the fancy cuts.

A Fairbank (Hill) retailer said today: "From all indications, I believe that prices will soon be jumping more for beef than ever before. Customers blame us, but we are not to blame. The meat trust has let the screws on the retailers' hand."

20 PERSONS BURIED IN BUILDING WRECK

KANSAS CITY STRUCTURE COLLAPSES AND BIG DISASTER IS FEARED.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 20.—Twenty persons are thought to be buried in the ruins of a building at Fourth and Delaware streets which collapsed this morning.

The extent of the loss of life is not known, but there is apprehension that many of the victims will be found lifeless before the wreckage can be cleared away sufficiently to release them.

SHANGHAI, June 19.—General Oku's report sent to the Japanese legation here says that natives declare that during the engagement the Russians carried back many of their killed and wounded, and later when about to flee they burned or buried many corpses near Hun-Hung-Kow.

The number of rifles, guns and men captured, General Oku says besides those already reported, is increasing, but the total is not yet known.

ONE KILLED IN BANK GETTING B. & M. WRECK

PLYMOUTH, N. H., June 20.—One person was killed and a number injured by an accident to the morning train on the New England Valley branch of the New York & Maine system. The accident occurred at a bridge over the Penikese river near Canton village. A dispatch was sent to Plymouth for assistance, and a special train, carrying all the physicians in town, started for Canton.

BANK GETTING MONEY BACK

SOUTH FRAMINGHAM, June 20.—Farmers' and Mechanics' Savings Bank depositors in South Framingham who withdrew their money last week are bringing back their savings, having decided that the institution is worthy of their confidence.

Their deposits are now being replaced there.

Mrs. Frank M. Land, wife of the pastor of the Calvary Church, says:

"My husband is in Boston to-day trying to get that mortgage. If the Lord does want the Calvary Church we will get the money. If He does not, we won't want the church I'm sure we don't. But the Central and First Church people succeed in pulling it off, getting that money we all need, a tear if I have to cry. I'm sure none of the Calvary Church people will go back to the old churches."

MISSILE TRADE FOR CRUISERS

ST. PETERSBURG, June 20—It is now definitely established that negotiations for the purchase by Russia of six Argentine cruisers had almost reached a successful conclusion when Argentina raised the question as to why that they be sold to Russia, she being unwilling to sell direct to a belligerent.

There is a lot of pleasure in the possession of a Rocking Settle. It is odd that this delightful piece of furniture appears only in summer form; it is worthy of being reproduced as an upholstered piece.

The seat here is wide enough for two grown-ups or for three children. The back is high and supports the shoulders; the arm-rests are nearly eight inches broad; the seat is extra deep and inclines slightly backward; there are long roll rockers.

Framed in maple with rush filling, we offer this rocking sofa at $7.25. It is the best pattern and the lowest price we have ever been able to offer. It should be eagerly bought, and we believe it will be.

SULLIVAN, DYING, SEEMS LOVE TO ROSE COGHAN

John P. Sullivan, the actor who was born in this city, died at the Hotel Bartholomew, New York, of pneumonia, which after a week's illness, struck him dead. His last wish was to send a message to Rose Coghlan, the actress, who died but only a few days ago.

When the physician announced that he was dead, Miss Coghlan, of No. 14 West Twentieth street, New York, who has been his leading actress for the past year, collapsed.

Friends of the dead man say that the love for Rose Coghlan, which he had for her, was the cause of his death. He had been in New York for some time, and was very ill.

When word reached him that the actress was dying, he wrote her a letter, and in it he said: "I love you, Rose, and I wish I could see you before you die."

Since 1880 until a few months ago he had been in New York. He was a very successful actor, and had been in many plays.

He was a very kind and generous man, and was loved by all who knew him. He was a very successful actor, and had been in many plays.

FANS OUT IN FORCE TO SEE THE BARGAIN DAY GAMES

They were getting the better of the team because they did not have to dig down to their jeans for more than the customary price. No matter if the opponents of the Boston were down in last place, the real live fans were not far from the front, and looking by the look on their faces, one would be led to believe that they were going to attend some of the world series, so satisfied did they appear.

OUT EARLY FOR PRACTICE.

The players of both sides were out early after 1 o'clock for their practice session. It is seldom that teams like to play two games in one afternoon, as the trials are usually telling. Nevertheless, the Indians and the Quakers were in very pleasant mood. The fact that they were to tackle two games did not trouble them, and they were anxious to mix up in the fun. The Quakers and the Boston have been having great sport since Friday evening the opening of the season with each other.

The Boston had won two out of three games played with the Showtown aggregation, and the Quakers were determined to show them in their efforts to capture the third and fourth wins.

Both teams appeared in better form than Saturday, when the home talent outwitted the "Pirates."

Manager Duffy had infused some new life into his team and they seemed to have before the game was on that they would do their best to win the "Toughies." On Dugally warmed up for the lullaby and showed some good speed to the "Pirates" in the first base line. His curves looked all to the good, and he seemed to have against control.

Fisher, who was called to the wheeling for the Boston, was in better condition than he has been for some time. He was confident he would make the Quakers look if they expected to win the game.
